Cardinal numbers 100–500

In British English we say 'and' after 'hundred': three hundred and forty-five. Say 'two hundred', not 'two hundreds'.

Number	In words
100	one hundred
101	one hundred and one
115	one hundred and fifteen
150	one hundred and fifty
200	two hundred
250	two hundred and fifty
299	two hundred and ninety-nine
300	three hundred
345	three hundred and forty-five
400	four hundred
472	four hundred and seventy-two
500	five hundred

Ordinal numbers 1st–50th

Watch the spelling: fifth, eighth, ninth, twelfth, fortieth (no 'u'). After twenty, only the last part changes: twenty-first, thirty-second.

Number	In words
1st	first
2nd	second
3rd	third
4th	fourth
5th	fifth
8th	eighth
9th	ninth
10th	tenth
12th	twelfth
15th	fifteenth
20th	twentieth
21st	twenty-first
22nd	twenty-second
23rd	twenty-third
30th	thirtieth
32nd	thirty-second
40th	fortieth
47th	forty-seventh

BEFORE YOU READ Do you normally study alone or with friends? Which do you prefer? Why?

Sister School Week · Team Green (Antalya + Ankara) · group chat · Wednesday, 20:05

Sister school week! Elif's class from Turunç Lower Secondary School, Antalya, is visiting a partner school in Ankara. Elif is leading a recycling project team: Kerem from Antalya, and Deniz and Ozan from Ankara. Tonight they are chatting online.

Elif Good evening, team! What are you all doing right now? I'm drawing the poster for our presentation on Friday.

Deniz I'm counting the plastic bottles from our class recycling box. There are 136! I normally go to my volleyball club on Wednesday evenings, but today I'm doing my task for the project.

Ozan And I'm searching for facts online. Listen to this: we can recycle glass again and again. Isn't that amazing?

Kerem I'm building our secret weapon in my hotel room: RoboBin! Your Science teacher, Mr Tekin, always says, 'Be creative!', doesn't he?

Deniz What sort of robot is it?

Kerem A smart bin! It has two doors, one for paper and one for plastic. It's practising right now.

Elif OK, let's check our plan. Firstly, Deniz shows the bottles. Then Ozan talks about the facts, and Kerem presents RoboBin. I'm making the poster. Is everything clear?

Ozan Clear! But Elif, you're drawing a cat on the poster, aren't you?

Elif Yes, I am! It's Pamuk, my cat. She's at home in Antalya with my family. Mum sends me a photo of her every evening, but I miss her. She's the star of our poster!

Kerem Team… we have a problem.

Deniz What's happening?

Kerem RoboBin is eating my Maths worksheet! It thinks my homework is paper for recycling!

Ozan Well, it IS paper, isn't it?

Elif Your robot works, Kerem! It's really effective.

Kerem Thanks… I think. Can someone share their Maths answers with me?

Deniz No way! But we can do the homework together in the school library tomorrow.

Elif Perfect. Two heads are better than one… or four heads and a robot!

A Very Strange Wednesday

Linked to: Student's Book p. 51 – Ecem's diary about a strange day in the classroom

BEFORE YOU READ Do your friends have funny habits? What does your best friend normally do in the break?

> Elif's diary · Sister School Week in Ankara · Day 3

Dear Diary, I normally write in you before bed, but today I'm writing during the lunch break. I'm under a big tree in the garden of our sister school in Ankara. Everyone is doing something different today. What a strange day!

Maya usually plays football in every break, doesn't she? But right now she is in the library, and she is reading silently. In English lessons she always reads aloud like an actor.

And Kerem! He normally tells jokes one after another in every lesson. Today he isn't telling any jokes. He's sitting quietly in the corner, and he's focusing on a secret project. When I ask about it, he just says, 'Nothing!'

Even Mrs Demir is different. She usually gives us a vocabulary quiz on Wednesdays, but there is no quiz today. Right now she is walking into the library with a big box. Kerem and Deniz, my new Ankara friend, are running after her, and they are whispering to each other. Something is happening, isn't it?

Pamuk has a new habit, too. Mum and Dad are sending me photos from Antalya. Pamuk usually sleeps on my bed all morning, but right now she is sitting on Mustafa's dinosaur book and 'reading' it. Mum's message says, 'She's revising for a test – she's working harder than Emre!'

P.S. 3.30 pm. I'm in the library, and now I know the secret! Both classes are shouting, 'Happy 100th post!' It's the 100th post on my blog, Elif's Notebook! Kerem is holding his secret project: a little robot with a big '100' sign. Mrs Demir is opening the big box – it's a cake! And Maya is reading a poem about my blog aloud. She isn't reading library books – she's practising her poem! My friends are the best, aren't they?

Love, Elif

BEFORE YOU READ Where can you learn new things outside school in your city? Name three places.

> Turunç School Magazine · Sister School Week special · by Elif Yıldız, 6-B

This week our class is at our sister school in Ankara, and we aren't only learning in the classroom! Our teachers are taking us to amazing places in the capital. We go in small groups, we take notes, and in the evening we discuss what we see. Here are my four favourite places.

1. The Nation's Library – Books. The Nation's Library is the largest library in Türkiye, and it is open 24 hours a day. It has millions of books and huge reading rooms. People come here to read, study and do research. I'm searching for art books for my blog. I love it here!

2. The Museum of Anatolian Civilizations – History. This museum is near Ankara Castle, in old Ottoman buildings. It shows objects from the ancient peoples of Anatolia, like the Hittites and the Phrygians. We are doing a history project, so we are filling in a worksheet about our favourite objects.

3. Anıtkabir – Our Republic. Anıtkabir is the tomb of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the Republic of Türkiye. It stands on a hill in the city. In its museum, visitors see Atatürk's personal things and learn about the War of Independence. Everyone is quiet and respectful here, and we all remember him with love.

4. The MTA Natural History Museum – Science. This museum is perfect for my little brother Mustafa, because he loves dinosaurs! There are big dinosaur models, fossils, rocks and colourful minerals. I'm taking lots of photos for him, and I'm drawing a dinosaur for our class presentation. It's a creative way to practise my art!

How often do you visit learning places like these? My mum always says, 'A good trip is a really effective lesson.' I agree – and it's much more fun than a test!

Let's check!

The Library Treasure Hunt

Linked to: Student's Book p. 53 – strip story: helping a friend with vocabulary, a learning method and full marks

BEFORE YOU READ Do you help your friends with their lessons? How?

> Sister School Week in Ankara

Monday, in the English lesson at the sister school in Ankara.

Mrs Demir Here's a worksheet about cardinal and ordinal numbers. We have a test on Friday, so please practise!

Kerem Elif… I need some help with vocabulary work! Numbers are easy in Maths, but in English they're a nightmare.

Elif Don't worry! Let's try a new method: a treasure hunt. Our class is visiting the Nation's Library tomorrow, so I'm writing the clues tonight.

Tuesday, at the Nation's Library. Elif's new Ankara friend Deniz is helping.

Deniz We usually read clues in turns, but today they're all yours, Kerem. Read Clue 1 aloud!

Kerem 'Go to the shelf with Elif's birthday number and find book 215.' Your birthday is the 5th of December, isn't it? So, the fifth shelf… I'm searching… A book about robots!

Elif You're good at this, aren't you? Look inside its cover.

Kerem Clue 2: 'Open the big dictionary at page 348. Find the 23rd word.' I'm counting the words… twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third… It's 'globe'!

Deniz The globe is by the window!

Kerem Clue 3 is under the globe: 'Go to Table 104.' Table one hundred and four… Look! It's Mrs Demir!

Mrs Demir Shh, we're in a library! Your treasure is a mini quiz. What's 450 in words?

Kerem Four hundred and fifty!

Mrs Demir And how do you spell 40th?

Kerem F-O-R-T-I-E-T-H. Fortieth! There's no 'u'!

Mrs Demir Excellent! You remember the tricky spelling. Look under the quiz paper.

Kerem A robot bookmark! Best treasure hunt ever!

The next Monday, at Elif's house in Antalya. Mum opens the door.

Mum Hello, Kerem! Why are you smiling?

Kerem I got full marks on the English test, Mrs Yıldız! Elif's treasure hunt works!

Mum Of course it does! She makes one for Mustafa every weekend.
